Code of Conduct

The listed topics on the preceding pages were presented for your review and to increase your understanding of your role and responsibilities to conform with our Compliance Program. Additionally, the Company commits to encouraging a safe, supportive and productive work environment. This can only happen when everyone cooperates and agrees to suitable standards of conduct.

The following are acts which the company considers unacceptable. Any employee found engaging in these acts will be subject to disciplinary action which may include reprimand, warning, suspension or dismissal/termination.

- Being absent from work without a valid reason
- Willfully damaging, destroying or stealing property belonging to fellow employees or the company
- Fighting or engaging in horseplay or disorderly conduct
- Refusing to follow or failing to carry out the reasonable instructions of a supervisor
- Ignoring work duties or wasting time during working hours
- Coming to work under the influence of alcohol or any drug, or bringing alcoholic beverages or drugs on to company property
- Intentionally giving any false or misleading information to obtain a leave of absence
- Using threatening or abusive language towards a fellow employee
- Smoking contrary to established policy or violating any fire protection regulation
- Willfully or habitually violating health and safety regulations
- Failing to wear clothing conforming to standards set by the company
- Being late or taking unexcused absences from work
- Not taking proper care of, neglecting or abusing company equipment or tools
- Using company equipment in an unauthorized manner
- Possessing firearms or weapons of any kind on company property.
- Acting in an unprofessional manner or in a manner that that is damaging to the reputation of the Company, especially when working with the general public

Receipt of Code of Conduct

I have received education on The Company's Compliance Program. I understand my required duties, expectations and responsibilities regarding compliance and I will conform to the Code of Conduct provided to me.

Staff Member: _____

_____ _____

Signature Date